My Dear Mr. Fox,

I sincerely trust that you will retain in your employ Mr. George T. Heilig, if you can consistently do so. From all that I can learn of him, he bears an excellent character, and the reports which you have received are overdrawn or untrue.

He comes of a good Lutheran family, and is almost the sole support of his mother.

Trusting that you will not regard this as an interference with your private affairs, but will thoughtfully consider the matter, I am, with the kindest regards

Yours, very sincerely and respectfully,

John F. Lewis

DEAR SIR,

MR. GEORGE HEILIG HAS TOLD ME THE REASON OF HIS SUSPENSION FROM THE MINT; AND THOUGH I HAVE NO DESIRE TO PALLIATE THE OFFENSE WHICH HE HAS COMMITTED, I FEEL THAT THE NEEDS OF HIS MOTHER, WHOM I HAVE THE PLEASURE OF KNOWING, COMPEL ME TO INTERCEDE IN HIS BEHALF. AND I BEG THAT YOU MAY RECONSIDER YOUR DECISION, AND OVERLOOK THE ERROR COMMITTED BY HIM, WHICH HAS PROMPTED YOUR ACTION.

VERY TRULY, YOURS,

Charles Gibbons Jr

Dear Sir,

Mr. George Heilig has told me the reason of his suspension from the Mint; and though I have no desire to palliate the offense which he has committed, I feel that the needs of his mother, whom I have the pleasure of knowing, compel me to intercede in his behalf. And I beg that you may reconsider your decision, and overlook the error committed by him, which has prompted your action.

Very truly, yours,
Charles Gibbons Jr.
